

COLLIHIST

Eye Drops

Composition

Each ml contains:

Pheniramine Maleate	3 mg.
Naphazoline Nitrate	0.25 mg.

Indications

For relief of ocular irritation and/or congestion or for the treatment of allergic or inflammatory ocular conditions.

Contraindications

- Hypersensitivity to one or more components of this preparation.
- Do not use in presence of narrow angle glaucoma or in patients predisposed to narrow angle glaucoma.

Adverse Reactions

The following adverse reaction may occur:

Pupillary dilatation, increase in intraocular pressure, systemic effects due to absorption (i.e. hypertension, cardiac irregularities, hyperglycemia).

Dosage and Administration

One or two drops instilled in each eye every 3 to 4 hours or less frequently, as required to relieve symptoms.

Storage

It should be stored in a cool place.

Presentation

Plastic dropper of 7 ml.